The image is a composite artwork. The top half features a large, glowing Earth with city lights visible on its surface, set against a bright sun with rays. The bottom half shows a city skyline at sunset, with silhouettes of people in the foreground looking out over a landscape that includes a river, mountains, and a small village. The title "NEW HORIZONS" is overlaid in the center.

NEW HORIZONS

The image is a composite artwork. The upper half features a large, glowing Earth in the sky, with the sun setting or rising behind it, creating a bright, golden light. The lower half shows a city skyline at sunset, with silhouettes of people looking out over a landscape. The title "NEW FRONTIERS" is prominently displayed in the center, with a gradient from blue to yellow.
