

To the ancient Jewish mind, "the sea" symbolized:

Restlessness and Doubt

(Isaiah 57:20, James 1:6)

Division and Separation

(Genesis 1:21)

Danger and Chaos

(Isaiah 42:2, Psalm 107:23–24)

Unbelieving Nations and Evil Forces

(Revelation 17:15, Isaiah 27:1)

The Bible's story centers on three trees:

The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil

The Tree of Life

The Tree of Golgotha (The Cross)

The Seven Fold State of Perfection:

- 1. There is no curse.*
- 2. God and the Lamb will dwell in the city.*
- 3. We will serve Him.*
- 4. We will see His face.*
- 5. His name is on our foreheads.*
- 6. There will be no night or sun for the Lord is the light.*
- 7. We will reign forever and ever.*

The Seven Blessings Promised in Revelation:

1. For those who read, hear, and take Revelation to heart. (Revelation 1:3)
2. For those martyred, who die faithful to the Lord. (Revelation 14:13)
3. For those clothed with Christ, staying spiritually awake and ready for Christ's return. (Revelation 16:15)
4. For those who make the wedding supper of the Lamb. (Revelation 19:9)
5. For those who are part of the first resurrection. (Revelation 20:6)
5. For those who are part of the first resurrection. (Revelation 20:6)
6. For those who keep the words of Revelation's prophecy. (Revelation 22:7)
7. For those who wash their robes. (Revelation 22:14)
