Why Finances Matter to God

Psalm 24:1

“The Earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof.”

Pastor Josh Canales

November 15, 2026

Stewardship is a form of Worship

“We begin worship by considering what He has rather than what we lack” (pg. 99, A Psalm in Your Heart, Wood).

“As we continue to grow and become aware of God’s ownership and greatness, we become alive to His creative work in our lives” (Wood, 99).

When it comes to finances, we realize that management boils down to being responsible because others depend on the decisions we make.

We honor God when we handle material wealth wisely and with care.

What are some areas in our lives where we would like to do a better job managing or understanding how to manage what God has given us?