Mark 14:17-25 ESV

17 And when it was evening, he came with the twelve. 18 And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me." 19 They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, "Is it I?" 20 He said to them, "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me." 21 For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

HOSPITALITY

Western Hospitality: Inviting friends over for a few hours

Biblical Hospitality: Persuading strangers to stay one more night

Kingdom Hospitality: Pursuing enemies to stay with us forever

More than who is difficult for me to embrace, who don't I want to embrace like family
because of how it might affect me or what it might cost me?

Mark 14:17-25 ESV

²² And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." ²³ And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. ²⁴ And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵ Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Embracing others as family, even in moments when they don't feel like family, draws them in to actually be family.
