

A person is paragliding over a body of water at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright, golden glow that reflects on the water. The sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue. The paraglider's canopy is orange and red, and they are silhouetted against the bright light. The overall mood is peaceful and adventurous.

Prayer is the accelerant of God's purposes

Luke 11¹ Once Jesus was in a certain place praying. As he finished, one of his disciples came to him and said, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

New Living Testament

Prayer is the accelerant of God's purposes

Luke 11⁵ Then, teaching them more about prayer, he used this story: "Suppose you went to a friend's house at midnight, wanting to borrow three loaves of bread. You say to him, ⁶ 'A friend of mine has just arrived for a visit, and I have nothing for him to eat.' ⁷ And suppose he calls out from his bedroom, 'Don't bother me. The door is locked for the night, and my family and I are all in bed. I can't help you.' ⁸ But I tell you this—though he won't do it for friendship's sake, if you keep knocking long enough, he will get up and give you whatever you need because of your shameless persistence.

New Living Testament

NLT - shameless persistence

The needs of the hungry + weary traveler

NLT - shameless persistence

NIV - shameless audacity

"troublesomely urgent"

"overly persistent in request or demand"

Prayer is the accelerant of God's purposes

Luke 11⁹ "And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. New Living Testament

Ask and keep on Asking

For things we know are the will of God, we can ask boldly and confidently
God wants all to be saved: 1 Tim 2.3 and 2 Peter 3.9

Ask boldly that God change the atmosphere of those we are praying for (2 Cor 4.4)

In areas where we're seeking God's will, be bold and ask Him to lead you.
"God, am I asking the right question"

Prayer is the accelerant of God's purposes

Luke 11⁹ "And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. New Living Testament

Ask and keep on Asking
Seek and keep on Seeking

Seeking is day after day, not just once
What we're seeking is the face and character of God, not just a result
(1 Chron 16.11, Psalm 27.8)

Prayer is the accelerant of God's purposes

Luke 11⁹ "And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you."¹⁰ For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. New Living Testament

Ask and keep on Asking

Seek and keep on Seeking

Knock and keep on Knoocking

Knocking is asking God to open doors that only He can open

Prayer is the accelerant of God's purposes

Luke 11⁹ "And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

Luke 11 ¹¹ "You fathers—if your children ask for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? ¹² Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! ¹³ So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him."
