

Great art Thou, O Lord,
and greatly to be praised;
great is Thy power, and Thy wisdom infinite...
Awake us to delight in Thy praise;
for Thou madest us for Thyself,
and our hearts are restless, until we rest in Thee.
(Adapted from Augustine's Confessions)

Opening Prayer

A decorative banner at the bottom of the page. It features a dark background with several hands in various colors (red, blue, green, purple) reaching out or holding each other. To the right, there is a white geometric pattern resembling a woven basket or a net.

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

HOLY

MATT

22:37

The final secret, I think, is this: that the words “You shall love the Lord your God” become in the end less a command than a promise. And the promise is that, yes, on the weary feet of faith and the fragile wings of hope, we will come to love him at last as from the first He has loved us...

...loved us even the wilderness,
especially in the wilderness,
because he has been in the wilderness with us.

*The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of his hands.
Day after day they pour forth speech;
night after night they reveal knowledge.
They have no speech; they use no words;
no sound is heard from them.
Yet their voice goes out into all the earth,
their words to the ends of the world.*

HOLY

PSALM

19:1-4

*God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you;
I thirst for you,
my whole being longs for you,
in a dry and parched land
where there is no water.
I have seen you in the sanctuary
and beheld your power and your glory.
Because your love is better than life,
my lips will glorify you.*

PSALM

63:1-3

*I will praise you as long as I live,
and in your name, I will lift up my hands.
I will be fully satisfied as with the richest of foods; with singing lips
my mouth will praise you.*

BIBLE

PSALM

63:4-5

*But I have calmed
and quieted myself,
I am like a weaned child
with its mother;
like a weaned child
I am content.*

HOLY

131:2

*For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid,
but gives us power,
love and self-discipline.*

St. Augustine advised us to follow what seems delightful, and in this pilgrim's way of living I see the delight of pluralism. The world is too complicated to have all its truth encompassed by any single tradition—by Christianity, Judaism, Islam or Enlightenment. Plant yourself in one and learn from them all.

Every generation of believers faces the risk of becoming a prisoner of its own myopic view of the Christian faith, assuming that how it sees and practices the faith is always the best.

None of us can fully escape this blindness, but we shall certainly increase it, and weaken our guard against it, if we read only modern books....the only palliative is to keep the clean sea breeze of the centuries blowing through our minds, and this can be done only by reading old books.

You read books.
God Himself talks to me.

You cannot face German shepherds and fire hoses without your own resources; there must be God and stillness at the very center of your being.

Lord, may we be rooted and established in love, may we have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is your love, and to know that this love surpasses knowledge—that we may be filled to the measure with all the fullness of God...

Closing Prayer

Now to you, Lord, who are able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to your power that is at work within us, to you be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever!
