Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is the first prayer letter of our first term in Germany. Naomi and I have some major updates to share with you. Firstly, we have arrived and moved into our new home in Mainz! The church we are working with was so gracious in helping us during the moving process. Our shipping container will arrive in about six weeks. We are thankful for the place the Lord opened for us. It has been a whirlwind, but God has given us grace as well as helpers.

Secondly, we have begun language school. We have an intensive schedule with it, but Naomi and I are ready to learn the language. What a blessing to be at this stage of the ministry. Please pray that we will be a light to our teachers and staff at the language school. Some classes will be in person and some on Zoom.

Finally, we are thrilled to announce that we are expecting a baby! Our baby girl is due in late August/early September. Our baby's name is Lydia! Naomi has been such a trooper with moving while pregnant. Mommy and baby are both doing great. We were able to find a doctor here quickly after the move.

We cannot express how thankful we truly are for all the texts, emails, calls, and personal messages we have gotten through this busy season of our lives. It seems like whenever we may start to get overwhelmed with all that is going on that God gives us extra grace for our need. He is always faithful and provides in every circumstance. We ask that you pray for us as we learn and work for the Lord in Mainz and that everything pertaining to our visa application is completed in a timely manner.

Yours in Christ,
Mark and Naomi Byers
