

WANDA SUE TRISLER was born in Start, Louisiana to Clyde and Yorkie Cartlidge on June 12, 1947 and passed away in her home December 13, 2025. She is survived by her husband of 55 years, Walter Harve Trisler; her children Tara Maddox (with the late Robert Maddox), Patrick Trisler (with Shannon Trisler), and Amy Booth (with Aaron Booth); 16 grandchildren: Shelby, Rachael, Jackson, Gareth, Wren, Bronwen, Sophie, Eli, Luke, Jude, Ava, Solon, Layla, Henry, Calhoun, and Sylvie; and 8 great-grandchildren: Shelby Eric, Gwenhwyfar, Robert, Cassandra, Robert, Lydia Jane, Magnolia and Alexandra.

Besides forming a sprawling family, Sue spent her life as a dedicated educator. She received her teaching degree at what was known as Northeast Louisiana State College (now ULM) in 1969. She taught at the Humpty Dumpty School in Rayville and later founded the American Heritage School in Rayville, where she taught eight grades in a one-room schoolhouse. She spent the rest of her career homeschooling and teaching others about homeschooling.

In her retirement she spent her days ferrying as many as 10 grandkids at a time around on the golf cart down Brimberry Road, picking up pecans, acorns, cotton bolls, and cattails. She enjoyed puzzles, games, hosting family gatherings, floral arranging, and decorating for every season. Sue spent many years caring faithfully for her parents and elderly relatives, and actively participated in the life of the church at Auburn Avenue Presbyterian Church (now Church of the Redeemer) as one of its most tenured members.

She continues to be very loved, and will be sorely missed.
