Prayer Peg Rouleau

Gracious and loving God, we come before You as one body, grateful for the peace You have given us through Jesus Christ. You did not turn away from us, but came near to us in love and reconciled us to Yourself. Teach us to live in that same spirit of love and reconciliation with one another. When we suffer, give us compassion for one another; when we rejoice, teach us to celebrate together. Shape us into a church of vibrant peace. We ask all this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Scripture Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:25-26 Peg Rouleau

The way God designed our bodies is a model for understanding our lives together as a church: every part dependent on every other part, the parts we mention and the parts we don't, the parts we see and the parts we don't. If one part hurts, every other part is involved in the hurt, and in the healing. If one part flourishes, every other part enters into the exuberance.

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

Sharing Joys and Concerns

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
