Gracious God, You love dreamers, and You give Your dreams to those You call. When we walk through seasons of struggle, waiting, and uncertainty, help us trust that You are still at work. Give us faith to follow Your vision, strength to endure the journey, and courage to trust Your timing. Lead us always into the purpose You have prepared for us. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Genesis 37:1-8

37 Jacob lived in the land of Canaan where his father was an immigrant. <sup>2</sup>This is the account of Jacob's descendants. Joseph was 17 years old and tended the flock with his brothers. While he was helping the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives, Joseph told their father unflattering things about them. <sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons because he was born when Jacob was old. Jacob had made for him a long robe. <sup>4</sup>When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of his brothers, they hated him and couldn't even talk nicely to him.

<sup>5</sup>Joseph had a dream and told it to his brothers, which made them hate him even more. <sup>6</sup>He said to them, "Listen to this dream I had. <sup>7</sup>When we were binding stalks of grain in the field, my stalk got up and stood upright, while your stalks gathered around it and bowed down to my stalk." <sup>8</sup>His brothers said to him, "Will you really be our king and rule over us?" So they hated him even more because of the dreams he told them.

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
