Call to Worship

Bill Carney

Leader: We need your presence on the long road, Lord.

People: The road between fear and hope, the road between the place where all is lost and the place of resurrection.

Leader: Like the disciples walking the road to Emmaus, we are in need of your company!

People: Jesus, stand among us, in your risen power, let this time of worship, be a hallowed hour.

Prayer

Open the eyes of our faith,
even our precarious fragile faith
that we may see Jesus at large and at work through this stunning Easter story, stimulating fearful followers to become fearless
in their thoughts, words and actions.
Speak afresh to us this morning as we are on the road again to Emmaus.

We pray in the name of the Risen Christ. Amen.

Scripture Reading - Luke 24:13-17; 28-35

Bill Carney

¹³ On that same day, two disciples were traveling to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were talking to each other about everything that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were discussing these things, Jesus himself arrived and joined them on their journey. ¹⁶ They were prevented from recognizing him.

¹⁷ He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk along?" They stopped, their faces downcast.

²⁸ When they came to Emmaus, he acted as if he was going on ahead. ²⁹ But they urged him, saying, "Stay with us. It's nearly evening, and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰ After he took his seat at the table with them, he took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he disappeared from their sight. ³² They said to each other, "Weren't our hearts on fire when he spoke to us along the road and when he explained the scriptures for us?"

³³ They got up right then and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and their companions gathered together. ³⁴ They were saying to each other, "The Lord really has risen! He appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then the two disciples described what had happened along the road and how Jesus was made known to them as he broke the bread.
