Prayer

Susan Carney

Loving God, thank You for loving us before we ever loved You. Forgive us when we serve out of duty rather than joy, or when we become too busy to care for others. Help us to see people as You see them, love them as You love them, and serve them with willing and joyful hearts. May our church be a community where Your love is seen, Your grace is experienced, and Your joy overflows. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Scripture Reading: John 4:7-8, 25-30

Susan Carney

⁷ A Samaritan woman came to the well to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me some water to drink." ⁸ His disciples had gone into the city to buy him some food.

²⁵ The woman said, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one who is called the Christ. When he comes, he will teach everything to us."

²⁶ Jesus said to her, "I Am—the one who speaks with you."^[a]

²⁷ Just then, Jesus' disciples arrived and were shocked that he was talking with a woman. But no one asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?" ²⁸ The woman put down her water jar and went into the city. She said to the people, ²⁹ "Come and see a man who has told me everything I've done! Could this man be the Christ?" ³⁰ They left the city and were on their way to see Jesus.

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
