Gracious and loving God, we thank You for the gift of mothers and all who have shown us love, care, and sacrifice. On this day, we remember their strength, their prayers, and their faithful presence in our lives. Bless all mothers today—those with us and those we remember in our hearts. Grant them strength, peace, and joy. Comfort those who carry sorrow or longing and surround every family with Your grace. Teach us, O Lord, to love deeply as You love us. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Scripture Reading: Exodus 2:1-10

Now a man from Levi's household married a Levite woman. ²The woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She saw that the baby was healthy and beautiful, so she hid him for three months. ³When she couldn't hide him any longer, she took a reed basket and sealed it up with black tar. She put the child in the basket and set the basket among the reeds at the riverbank. ⁴The baby's older sister stood watch nearby to see what would happen to him.

⁵Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe in the river, while her women servants walked along beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds, and she sent one of her servants to bring it to her. ⁶When she opened it, she saw the child. The boy was crying, and she felt sorry for him. She said, "This must be one of the Hebrews' children."

⁷Then the baby's sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Would you like me to go and find one of the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?"

⁸Pharaoh's daughter agreed, "Yes, do that." So the girl went and called the child's mother. ⁹Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I'll pay you for your work." So the woman took the child and nursed it. ¹⁰After the child had grown up, she brought him back to Pharaoh's daughter, who adopted him as her son. She named him Moses, "because," she said, "I pulled him out of the water."

Leader: This is the word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
