

The Lord's Prayer: Putting it All Together Matthew 6:9-13

The things to bring to your time of prayer

- o Calendar/Planner: Bring whatever you use to write down to-do lists, appointments, etc. because you will be distracted by these in prayer!
- o Bible and reading plan.
- o Prayer Journal or printed sheets to “pray in squares.”
- o Pen and markers (it’s OK to be creative; it’s part of being made in our Creator God’s image!).
- o Means of worship (iPhone, CD player, instrument, etc.)

How to Pray in Squares

- o Read the Bible slowly and prayerfully, looking for direct or indirect promptings from the Holy Spirit for prayer.
- o Write the Scripture verse and/or prayer request in the appropriate box, i.e., where it “fits” into the Lord’s Prayer.
- o Allow more time than needed for each square to add prayers that come to mind, time to listen to God, and silence.
Pray the Lord’s Prayer “in squares,” praying for what you have written down and what comes to mind while praying:
If it’s a distraction: Write it down and be done with it!
If it’s another part of the prayer: Write it down in the appropriate box and return to praying.
