

Sermon Highlights

Sermon Summary:

This sermon explores the profound consequences of sin using the story of Cain and Abel. It emphasizes the importance of following God's way rather than our own, the danger of unrepentant sin, and God's mercy even in the face of grave transgressions. Pastor Bruce Gordon stresses the need for believers to live according to God's commandments and for unbelievers to accept Christ without delay.

Key Points:

- Sin has immediate and far-reaching consequences
- God has a specific way He wants to be worshipped and served
- Unrepentant sin leads to further sin and separation from God
- God offers mercy and chances for repentance even after serious sins
- The importance of church attendance and fellowship for believers
- The urgency of accepting Christ and not delaying salvation
