

Sermon Highlights

Sermon Summary:

This sermon explores the call of God on Abraham's life as a model for how God calls and works with believers today. It emphasizes that God's call is personal, direct, and requires faith. Pastor Bruce Gordon highlights the importance of a personal relationship with God, listening to His voice through Scripture, and persevering through failures in the journey of faith.

Key Points:

- God's call is personal and requires a genuine relationship with Him
- God speaks directly to believers, primarily through His Word
- Faith is essential in responding to God's call and living the Christian life
- Believers should expect struggles and failures as part of their spiritual growth
- God is patient and continues to work with believers despite their failures
- Regular Bible reading is crucial for hearing God's voice and growing spiritually

Scripture Reference:

- Genesis 12:1-9

Stories:

- The call of Abraham (Abram) to leave Ur and go to Canaan
- Abraham's failure in Egypt when he lied about Sarah being his sister
- Brief mention of Abraham fathering a child with Hagar