

Sermon Highlights

Sermon Summary:

This sermon explores the events following the Fall in Genesis 3, examining God's judgment on Satan, Eve, and Adam, while also highlighting the early signs of God's redemptive plan. Pastor Bruce Gordon emphasizes the consequences of sin, the nature of God's justice and mercy, and the foreshadowing of Christ's sacrifice. The sermon underscores the importance of fearing God, recognizing the reality of judgment, and embracing the hope of salvation through Jesus Christ.

Key Points:

- God's judgment on Satan, Eve, and Adam after the Fall
- The consequences of sin and the reality of death
- The proto-evangelium: the first promise of a Savior
- The institution of the sacrificial system as a precursor to Christ's sacrifice
- The importance of fearing God and recognizing His holiness
- The hope of resurrection and eternal life for believers
- The necessity of making a choice between righteousness and unrighteousness

Scripture Reference:

- Genesis 3:14-24

Stories:

- The Fall of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden
- God's provision of animal skins to clothe Adam and Eve
- The expulsion from the Garden and the placement of the cherubim to guard the tree of life