

Sermon Highlights

Compromise and Consequences: The Tale of Two Men

Sermon Summary:

This sermon contrasts the spiritual lives of Abraham and Lot, emphasizing the dangers of compromising with worldly values. It warns against the gradual acceptance of sin in society and the church, urging believers to live spiritually-focused lives rather than being ruled by fleshly desires. Preacher Bruce Gordon calls for a return to biblical standards and separation from worldly entertainment and lifestyles.

Key Points:

- Abraham's life represents spiritual growth and trust in God
- Lot's life exemplifies compromise with worldly values
- The dangers of gradual acceptance of sin in society and the church
- The importance of not compromising with worldly entertainment and values
- The consequences of living by fleshly desires rather than spiritual principles
- The need for the church to stand against sin and preach truth
- The imminence of God's judgment and the end times
- The importance of setting one's heart on eternal things rather than worldly possessions

Scripture Reference:

- Genesis 19:1-11

Stories:

- The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah
- Abraham's journey of faith and willingness to sacrifice Isaac
- Lot's compromise and loss in Sodom
- The Exodus and the death angel passing over Egypt
- The rich young ruler being asked to sell all his possessions