

Sermon Highlights

Living by Faith in Uncertain Times: Lessons from Habakkuk

Sermon Summary:

This sermon explores the book of Habakkuk, focusing on how to trust God and live by faith even when we don't understand His ways or timing. Bert Harper emphasizes that while we often desire clarity in difficult situations, God calls us to trust Him and live by faith. The sermon encourages believers to stand ready for correction, to wait on God's timing, and to rejoice in Him regardless of circumstances.

Key Points:

- The just shall live by faith, even when we don't understand God's ways
- God's timing is perfect, though it may not align with our expectations
- We should be ready to be corrected by God and change our ways
- Trusting God involves waiting on Him and being willing to be amazed by His work
- True faith leads to rejoicing in God regardless of circumstances

Scripture Reference:

- Book of Habakkuk, particularly Habakkuk 2:1-4 and 3:17-19

Stories:

- The story of Moses' birth and how God was answering prayers before the Israelites realized it
- The conversion of Jan's father after years of prayer
- Dr. R.G. Lee's last words about the beauty of heaven
- Personal anecdote about a near-accident due to a blind spot while driving a van full of children
- Reference to evangelist Gypsy Smith's illustration of personal revival