

What's Stopping You?

For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou (Es 4:14)

Area 1: Our View of Ourselves

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. (1 Pe 2:9).

I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well (Ps 139:14).

Question For The Week: How are you viewing yourself in this season?

Area 2: Our View of God

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. (Je 29:11).

God did this so that, by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be greatly encouraged. (Hebrews 6:18)

Question For The Week: How are you viewing God in this season?

Area 3: Our Tendency To Compare Ourselves with Others

Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding. (2 Co 10:12).

Question(s) for the week: In what ways have you been comparing yourself and how is that hindering you?

What is this saying about where you are/how you feel?
How can you move forward?

Area 4: Our Hesitancy to Dream & Prepare

Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God. (Ps 42:11)

Question for the week: What dreams have been placed in your heart that may be lying dormant? How can you dream and prepare again?
