Part 3 – Don't Forget to Remember

Psalm 78:1-5, 57

The history of Israel in the Old Testament is a very rhythmic history - rebellion and then redemption. Sin and then forgiveness. Wrath and then mercy. The account of Israel's history was often told and retold so that future generations would always remember God's faithfulness. We all have the responsibility to pass down God's truth to the next generation of Christ followers. We must never forget to remember to tell the story of God's redemption.

READ: Psalm 78:1-5, 57; I Corinthians 10:6

DISCUSS:

- Why was it important for the history of God's people (Israelites) to be told and retold? Why is it important today for us to read and remind ourselves of God's truths and promises?
- Why is it important for each generation of Christians to make disciples of the next generation? What happens overtime if we stop disciplining our children?
- How does remembering the past help us to live for Christ in the future? How can Christian's of all ages help build the faith of the next generation?

PRAY & RESPOND:

Reflect/Pray about your personal role in helping raise up the next generation of Christ followers.
