

CORE 4 (Week 2)

Clint Craig - 26 August 2018

Discussion and Questions:

1. Have you ever been (or know of someone) in a one-sided relationship? An unrequited love, efforts that went unreciprocated? It could be with a spouse, parent, child or friend. Share your observations.
2. What evidence is there that God desires a deep relationship with each of his children? Isn't general membership in God's family enough? What passages support your answer?
3. Discuss what part sin and ignorance play in keeping us from pursuing a great relationship with God. Whose role is it to address these things?
4. Clint said there are three ingredients that go into relating well to our Heavenly Father. They are: time, vulnerability and submission. When you look carefully at each of them, what do they evoke in you and why?
5. Formulaic living and religious codes are things to be aware of as we progress down life's road. How can a person know they have wandered into these areas and what does God offer them as a way back?
6. According to Revelation 3:20 and 1 John 4:18-19, we have nothing to fear when it comes to getting on more intimate terms with God. What are some things we can begin to do straight away that lead us in that direction?
