

Real Family (Week 4)

Clint Craig

21 May 2017

Discussion and Questions:

1. What did conflict look like in your family when you were growing up?
2. Are you naturally a Rhino or a Hedgehog when it comes to conflict?
3. Read James 4:1-3. Does it surprise you that James writes all our fights & quarrels come from the evil desires at war within you? Why, Why not?
4. James' suggestion that we don't get what we want because we haven't asked God for it is so profound. What could you do to help you next time you get angry and want to fight or quarrel to instead pause and firstly ask God for the thing you desire?
5. The motives behind why we ask for things are clearly very important. Is there a time where we can ask God for things from a selfish perspective?

Upcoming dates:

- Financial Peace University – this Saturday May 27th
- Open Home – Sunday June 11th
- Core – Monday June 12th