

My Big Fat Mouth (Week 3)

Craig Groeschel – 5 August 2018

Discussion and Questions:

1. How many different forms of lying can you think of? Why do people lie in the first place?
2. Is there such a thing as lying and getting away with it? Why or why not?
3. What is the worst lie you have ever had told to you? How did it make you feel? Did you forgive the person that told the lie?
4. Craig said Satan has a plan for each of us when it comes to lying. First is to get us to lie. It is fair to say he doesn't have to work too hard to achieve that. The second is to get us to lie to ourselves. What would that look (sound) like? Where does it get us?
5. The third is to live a lie. The most dangerous example is when a person believes the lie that they are a genuine born again Christian when they actually aren't at all. How can a person be absolutely sure they are really saved?
6. Ephesians 4:20-25 puts it plainly that we are to stop telling lies. There are two reasons in there for doing so. Can you spot them? What are some ways we can learn to guard against being a liar?
