

WINDOW OF FAITH: How's Your Soul? (Week 3)

Clint Craig – 17 February 2019

Discussion and Questions:

1. Have you been making notes as you use the James journal? What insights or questions can you bring to the group?
2. James tells us to be “quick to hear, slow to speak.” Have you had situations where you did the opposite—slow to hear, quick to speak? What’s the problem with that?
3. Is there such a thing as “righteous indignation”? Do you think that sometimes God wants us to get angry about certain things? Then what do you do with verse 20?
4. On Sunday Clint spoke about Listening, Accepting & Doing - which of the 3 do you find the hardest?
5. In what way is the law “a law of liberty”? Wouldn't you think it does the opposite?
6. One of the ways Clint said we could have assurance of our faith is by the fact that every time we apply the perfect law, we don't feel the same angst in our soul as when we fail to apply it. Do you agree with this? Why or why not.
7. On Sunday Clint said there was a link between our willingness to hold fast to God's law and the condition of our soul. When we hold fast to it, our soul is at peace, but when we break it there is angst. Do you agree or disagree with this? Explain why.
