

GO (Week 1)

Mat Kearney – 6 June 2021

Discussion and Questions:

1. Read Matthew 28: 19-20. Who has been someone you have known in your life that is/was amazing at sharing the good news of Jesus to others?
2. Mat is using an analogy of Christians being called to be lifeguards, trained in the guard house but called to be in the water. If you think back over the last week, where do you think you have spent most of the time - in the water needing help; in the guardhouse with the other guards or on the beach and in the water helping others?
3. In order for us to “GO” - we need to first understand that, as followers of Jesus and people who point people to Jesus, we are carriers of good news. Paul and Peter knew this and opened their letters expressing some aspects of the goodness of God. Read through these verses together, how has Jesus been these things to you in your life:
 - i. A comforter (2 Cor 1: 3-4)
 - ii. A rescuer (Gal 1: 3-4)
 - iii. A hope giver (1 Peter 1: 3-4)
 - iv. A provider (2 Peter 1:3)
 - v. A giver of life (John 10:10)
4. There were cards available to everyone after Sunday giving the opportunity to think about 2 things - one thing that connected with you from the message and one way you can “Go” this week. What was your answer to those questions?
