I. A Call to Worship

“Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt His name together.”

Psalm 34:3(NKJV)

II. Family Confession & Greeting

Seven Promises About The Gift Of Salvation
Promise #1

The Gift of Salvation is free and available for all who accept it.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.”
John 3:16

“For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.”
Ephesians 2:8, 9

III. Worshipping God through Our Offerings

“Yours, LORD, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the majesty and the splendor, for everything in heaven and earth is yours. Yours, LORD, is the kingdom; you are exalted as head over all.... “But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give as generously as this? Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.”
I Chronicles 29:11, 14 (NIV)

❖ When have you felt welcomed?

➤ The Priority, Pursuit, and Power of Hospitality

Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—His good, pleasing and perfect will.... For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.... Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality. Romans 12:1,2,4,5,10-13 (NIV)

"You must seek strangers and make them neighbors, and embrace neighbors, praying that God would make them all family of God." Rosaria Butterfield

➤ Practicing The "One Anothers" in the New Testament

"Greet one another with the kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ." I Peter 5:14

➤ The Responsibility and Gift of Hospitality

The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. I Peter 4:7-10 (NIV)

- Elevate Celebration Offering & TOCC Hospitality
- Loving The Family and Loving Strangers

Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it. Hebrews 13:1, 2 (NIV)

- Prayer to Elevate our Hospitality as a church community.

Community Group Questions:

1. Read: Romans 12:10–13. Think of a time when you felt deeply welcomed—or deeply unwelcome. What emotions did you experience? How does Romans 12 describe the kind of community God desires us to create?
2. Which of the testimonies in the message on hospitality impacted you and why?
3. Read: Romans 12:1–2. How does offering ourselves as "living sacrifices" connect to practicing hospitality? In what ways might hospitality require sacrifice?
4. Read: Romans 12:4–5. What does it mean that "each member belongs to all the others"? How does that shape the way we think about relationships in the church?
5. Read: Romans 12:13; 1 Peter 4:9. The phrase "practice hospitality" means to pursue or chase it. What's the difference between being open to hospitality and actively pursuing it?
6. Read: 1 Peter 4:7–10. Peter connects the nearness of "the end of all things" with deep love and hospitality. Why do you think hospitality becomes even more important in urgent or uncertain times?
7. Read: Hebrews 13:1–2. What is the difference between loving "brothers and sisters" and showing hospitality to "strangers"? Why are both important?
8. Read: John 13:34–35; Romans 16:16. Jesus says the world will know we are His disciples by our love. How do simple acts—like greeting warmly, inviting someone to a meal, or remembering a name—demonstrate Christ's love?
9. Pray for your "FRANCES" (Friends, Relatives, Acquaintances, Neighbors, Coworkers, Enemies, Strangers) to be drawn to Jesus as their Savior in 2026.
