

Study Guide: John 1:35-51

Reading

- John 1:35-51

Warm Up

- How do you currently understand the concept of following Jesus? What does it mean to "come and see" in your own words?

Scripture Exploration

- Read John 1:35-51. What stands out to you about the interactions between Jesus and the disciples?
- What are the key actions and responses of the disciples in John 1:35-51? How do they demonstrate their faith?

Personal Reflection

- What does the invitation "Come and see" mean in the context of Jesus' ministry? How can this invitation be extended to others today?
- How does the story of the disciples' first encounter with Jesus challenge or affirm your understanding of discipleship?
- Consider the statement "Jesus sees you." How does this truth impact your personal relationship with God?

Personal Application

- Reflect on your daily routine. How can you prioritize "first things first" in your spiritual life this week?
- Identify one person in your life who needs to "come and see" Jesus. What steps can you take to introduce them to Christ?
- How can you ensure that your life reflects the love and teachings of Jesus in your community? What practical actions can you take this week?
- Spend time in prayer asking God to reveal areas in your life where you need to be more intentional about living out your faith. What changes will you make as a result?
