

Shepherd of the Hill Presbyterian Church USA

- Service for the Lord's Day -

July 24, 2022 – 10:00 a.m.

(*) Please stand in body or in spirit.

Bold type indicates congregational response.

We acknowledge that our church is on the traditional homelands of the Puyallup Tribe. The Puyallup people have lived on and stewarded these lands since the beginning of time, and continue to do so today. We recognize that this land acknowledgment is one small step toward true allyship and we commit to uplifting the voices, experiences, and histories of the Indigenous people of this land and beyond.

The Prelude to Worship

Welcome

Susan Boyles

* Call to Worship (please stand)

Rev. Riley Pickett

Though the presence of God is always near,

it is rarely loud, often subtle, and always prefers an invitation.

Permeating all of life, always and everywhere available, the Holy asks us to listen, to be still, to pay attention, and to practice the Wisdom we receive.

The Holy Mystery of Love,

the Sacred Calling of Courage,

The Lure of Truth and Beauty,

they are always moving us toward the restoration of life.

Praise be to God

who is revealed in our longings,

felt in connection,

and encountered in the flesh of creation.

Called to be branches in Christ's body, we yearn to be connected to the vine.
Called to be mustard bushes offering shade to God's creatures,
we search for places to plant the seeds of faith.
Called to be growing with God in the midst of this world's painful questions, we seek God's nurturing presence.

* Hymn # 485

"To God Be the Glory"

Prayer of Confession

Rev. Riley Pickett

Gracious God, you created a world of plenty,
Yet there are people starving for nourishment and thirsting for clean water.

And we still feel like we never have enough.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

You created a world of peace,
yet your children are being murdered and innocent lives are lost to the violence of weapons and hateful policies.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

You created a world with time for rest,
Yet there are people in homes and communities so fraught with uncertainty and fear that no rest comes and sleep carries with it memories of fear.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

You created us as Beloved and enough without us having to do anything at all.
Yet we live as though we have to prove our worth and earn our rest.

We move through the world distracted and exhausted.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Forgive us. Remind us of who we really are and help us to live out of a place of inherent worth and belovedness. Place us back into the work of reconciling ourselves to our neighbors and this world so that we may again return to your loving creation.

Amen.

Prayers of the People

Susan Boyles

This is our prayer/praise. Lord, hear our prayer/praise.

The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic* Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.

Amen.
