~ Service for the Lord's Day ~

June 19, 2022 – 10:00 a.m.

(*) Please stand in body or in spirit.

Bold type indicates congregational response.

We acknowledge that our church is on the traditional homelands of the Puyallup Tribe. The Puyallup people have lived on and stewarded these lands since the beginning of time, and continue to do so today. We recognize that this land acknowledgment is one small step toward true allyship and we commit to uplifting the voices, experiences, and histories of the Indigenous people of this land and beyond.

* Call to Worship (please stand)

Mark Severin

Come, sing praises to God!

Rejoice in his presence!

For he is our God:

A Father to the fatherless,

and the defender of all who need protection;

the One in whom the lonely find a home,

and the prisoner finds release.

Bless the Lord, the God of our salvation,

who sustains and strengthens us, day after day!

Let's worship God together!

Sharing Our Burdens Prayer

Sisters and brothers, we can trust God at all times, for the Holy One is our refuge and our salvation! So with confidence, let us pour out a shared confession of our hearts . . .

We confess to You, steadfast God, that we wander from the path of love upon which we are meant to walk.
Fears divide us, prejudice hardens us, violence destroys us.
But God eternally beckons.
We turn our hearts again to You, God of grace and mercy.
Forgive us love that is self-satisfied,
and teach us love that is self - and other - affirming.
Forgive us faith that makes us rush to judgment,
and give us faith that fills us with compassion.
Forgive us when our peace is made through divisions,
and unite us in peace that passes understanding.
We pray, with thanksgiving, in the name of Christ.
Amen.

By God's mercy, our feet are set again upon the path of faithfulness; our hearts are set again upon the coming of God's realm. Thanks be to God, our hope and our guide forever!

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

We Welcome All

To be inclusive means to accept all people as loved by God.

We recognize that all who receive Christ belong in the community of faith.

We also recognize and honor the rich complexity and diversity of people God calls to our faith community, including people who disagree with this statement.

Though not all may agree, we find our unity in Christ who loves each of us and all of us together.

We welcome all people into all parts of the church's life and ministry, including ordained ministry as a Ruling Elder, Teaching Elder, or Deacon.

We seek to appreciate the vital worth of each human being,
and will intentionally work to provide welcome and inclusion of all people in the life of our congregation.
