We acknowledge that our church is on the traditional homelands of the Puyallup Tribe. The Puyallup people have lived on and stewarded these lands since the beginning of time, and continue to do so today. We recognize that this land acknowledgment is one small step toward true allyship and we commit to uplifting the voices, experiences, and histories of the Indigenous people of this land and beyond.

Prelude

“How Can I Keep From Singing?”

(Since Christ is Lord of Heaven and earth, How can I keep from singing?)

Welcome

* Call to Worship

Ruth Kennon

In a world that cries out, “Fear me!”

We will listen to Jesus’ words,

“Don’t be afraid!”

In a world that wants us to hate the other...

We will live Jesus’ call to,

“Love God and love your neighbor, as yourself.”

In a world that radicalizes...

We, too, will be radical.

Radical with our hospitality.

Radical with our hope.

Radical with our love.

Then let us worship God,

ready to be who we are called to be.

Let us stand together in God’s love.

Sharing Our Burdens Prayer

God, we confess that we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. You embodied yourself in a human body. You lived out your life among those who were sick — physically, mentally, and spiritually. You reached out to touch them, spoke words to comfort them, performed miracles to heal them. Heal us we pray from the sin-sickness that grips us. Heal us and help us to work for the healing and wholeness of our neighbors as well. Just speak the word of your peace, and we shall be healed.

Amen.

Hear the good news: Christ has broken the power of sin and opened the way to new life.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, healed, and made new.

Let every voice and every life sing praise to God.

Welcome to the Table

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
