Legacy Question: What STORY do I want to tell?

You write the story of YOUR life, one DECISION at a time.

Discuss and Apply

1. Can you identify a decision in the past that served as the beginning of a new and better chapter in the story of your life? What about a decision that introduced a chapter you would rather forget?
2. What was the catalyst for those decisions?
3. Do you know anyone whose story, through no fault of their own, set them up to write a story characterized by bitterness and resentment but decided their story in a healthy direction?
4. How do you understand Pastor Tom statement, "Your decisions echo in eternity."

Prayer

Father, during this series, I have come to understand how my good and bad decisions impact the lives of many. Lord, I ask that you intervene by healing and restoring. Today, I forgive those who offended me and ask you to bless them with a vision of your compassionate care.

Lord I ask you for wisdom in making future decisions, help me to discern trouble and take refuge in you while living each day for your glory. I want to make decisions that will echo in eternity and produce generational impacts. In Jesus Name

At Manna Church, We believe ...

...the Bible is the handbook for life. The books which form the canon of the Old and New testaments as originally given are plenary inspired and free from all error in the whole and in the part. These books constitute the written word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice.
