

A Church on the Move is -

Acts 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

- Not frantic – but faithful.
- Not busy – but obedient.
- Not passive – but intentional.
- Not activity-driven – but strategic.

Our Jerusalem (local) Ministry Partners

Matthew 25:35-36 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’

Jesus didn’t just preach truth — He protected the vulnerable.
- Dotty Dalphon – The Salvation Army
When someone is hungry, cold, displaced, or overwhelmed — theology must put on work boots.
- Melody Guerrero – Manna Church Outreach
Mission is not a department. – It is our identity.

“To Win for the Lamb the Reward of His Suffering”¹

Revelation 5:9-10 “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were slain, And with your blood you purchased for God, persons from every tribe and language and people and nation. You have made them to be a kingdom and priests to serve our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

Pray • Give • Serve • Go

Mission Possible is obedience in MOTION.

Reflection Questions

1. Where do you most naturally see yourself serving — neighbor, city, or nations? Why?
2. What fears or hesitations keep believers from being “on the move”?
3. How does Acts 1:8 reshape the way we view everyday faithfulness?
4. Which ministry today stirred your heart most deeply?
5. What is one tangible step you can take this month to live on mission?
6. As the ROC weekend approaches, ask the Lord how He wants you to be involved in His global mission through praying, giving, and possibly going.
