

I Resolve to Steward My Life Well

Pastor Tom Johnson

A Heart Submitted To God, Stewards Time, Talent, And Treasure For His Purposes.

1. Stewarding Time: Living with Eternal Awareness

Ephesians 5:15–17 (NIV)

“Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is.”

- Establish a daily “first fruits” rhythm (Mark 1:35-38)
- Create a weekly Sabbath pattern (Exodus 20:8-11)
- Adopt margin as a spiritual discipline
- Practice digital stewardship

Schedule God → Schedule Family →
Schedule Mission → Schedule Rest → Everything else

2. Stewarding Talent — Activating God’s Gifts for God’s Purposes

- Identify your gifts. (Gift Profiles)
- Develop your gifts intentionally (Matthew 25:14–15)
- Serve consistently, not sporadically (Give, and it shall be given...)
- Shift from a Church Consumer to Kingdom Contributor

Discover → Develop → Deploy → Disciple Others

3. Stewarding Treasure — Aligning Resources with Eternal Purpose

- Practice first-fruits giving
- Create a prayer-driven budget
- Live below your means
- Practice hospitality
- Adopt generosity as identity, not obligation

Give → Save → Live → Share

Stewardship Is Worship Expressed Materially.

Reflection Questions

1. Where has hurry or distraction begun to erode my spiritual attentiveness?
 2. What rhythms might God be inviting me to establish or restore in my use of time?
 3. What gifts or abilities has God entrusted to me that I may be under-utilizing or neglecting?
 4. How am I currently using my talents to serve others and build God's Kingdom?
 5. What does my spending reveal about what I truly value?
 6. What one practical step can I take this week to live a more well-ordered life before God?
