

“Loving God, Loving Others”

We are honored to welcome you today. We hope you find Court Street a caring and accepting place that inspires you to love God and love others. All of the pastors are here to assist you on your spiritual journey, and we look forward to hearing more of your story.

Children

Every Sunday, we're creating fun, healthy and safe spaces for children to encounter God's abundant love. This month at 9:30am, we offer rooms for Nursery to grade 3, with 4th and 5th grade children in service or helping with the younger ages. There are coloring pages for any children sitting in service with their families, and also a Parent/Baby room in the lobby for sound-proof privacy.

Offering

Offering Boxes are located along the exterior walls of our worship center. You can also give securely online; visit our website or app to set up one-time or recurring payments.

Communion Stations

During our musical worship, or after service, you are invited to participate in communion at the barrels around the room. The trays have a cup of juice stacked on top of a cup with bread. A pastor or worship leader may talk about it, but we encourage you to partake as you feel comfortable.

Thank you for being a part of our service today, and we look forward to seeing you next week at 9:30 or 11am!

Week 4: Jacob's Family

Guest Speaker: Lars Coburn

Genesis 25:23 & Genesis 27:38

Definition of a blessing:

“Be _____ and _____” given to _____ birds, fish, plants, animals, and _____.

A “blessing” is naming the _____ and creative _____ already present.

The Jacob and Esau story shapes my faith by...

Showing how _____ and _____ narrows the blessing intended for _____. _____
says there's only enough for _____, but God demonstrates there is _____ for _____.

Think of "Theology" as a _____ you _____ of who you believe God to be at this
_____.

Genesis 29:31 - 30:24

The Rachel and Leah story shapes my faith by...

Reminding me God's _____ is not a _____ relationship. My _____ and _____ is not _____ on my _____ or _____.

Who is _____ of _____ and calling forth the _____ already
_____?

Jacob's story shapes my faith by...

Posing a central question: Do I believe there is _____ enough for _____, or do we believe there is _____
_____?
