

Welcome

“Loving God, Loving Others”

We are honored to welcome you today. We hope you find Court Street a caring and accepting place that inspires you to love God and love others. All of the pastors are here to assist you on your spiritual journey, and we look forward to hearing more of your story.

Health Precautions

We’re committed to keeping our community as safe as possible by following these guidelines:

- Please keep nose and mouth covered while indoors.
- Practice a social distance of 6ft between households.
- Use contactless greetings.

Children

Our Children’s Ministry program is available for little ones through grade 5 — just ask a greeter for details. If children choose to stay with their family in the worship service, we offer coloring pages in the lobby. The Mother/Baby room in the lobby is another resource for those with infants.

Offering

Offering Boxes are located along the exterior walls of our worship center. You can also give securely online using PushPay — visit our website and follow the “Give” link.

Thank you for being a part of our service today, and we look forward to seeing you next week!

Easter Sunday

April 4, 2021
Cory Spangler

Matthew 28:1-8

“Ashes” communicated:

- pain
- shame

Integrated :

Physical, emotional, spiritual all communicate the same message

Dissociated :

Physical, emotional, or spiritual communicate a different message

Hiding or wallowing

What are my ashes?

Resurrection means that God can turn ashes into beauty now and for eternity.

Do I want God to meet me in my ashes and bring beauty?

“...the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners... to comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve... to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes”

Isaiah 61:1-3