

“Loving God, Loving Others”

We are honored to welcome you today. We hope you find Court Street a caring and accepting place that inspires you to love God and love others. All of the pastors are here to assist you on your spiritual journey, and we look forward to hearing more of your story.

Children

Every Sunday, we’re creating fun, healthy and safe spaces for children to encounter God’s abundant love. This month at 9:30am, we offer rooms for Nursery to grade 3, with 4th and 5th grade children in service or helping with the younger ages. There are coloring pages for any children sitting in service with their families, and also a Parent/Baby room in the lobby for sound-proof privacy.

Offering

Offering Boxes are located along the exterior walls of our worship center. You can also give securely online; visit our website or app to set up one-time or recurring payments.

Communion Stations

During our musical worship, or after service, you are invited to participate in communion at the barrels around the room. The trays have a cup of juice stacked on top of a cup with bread. A pastor or worship leader may talk about it, but we encourage you to partake as you feel comfortable.

Thank you for being a part of our service today, and we look forward to seeing you next week at 9:30 or 11am!

Week 2: When it All Goes Wrong

Josh Fisher
October 2, 2022

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You must not eat from any tree in the garden?’”

The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, but God did say, ‘You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.’”

“You will not certainly die,” the serpent said to the woman. “For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, "Where are you?"

He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid."

And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

The man said, "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it."

Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?"

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."
