

¹“Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. ²In my Father’s house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. ⁴And you know the way to where I am going.” ⁵Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” ⁶Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

47

On The Table wk 1.043.jpeg

I am trying here to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people often say about him; I am ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don't accept his claim to be God. That is the one thing we must not say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic-on the level with the man who says he is a poached egg-or else he would be the Devil of hell. You must make your choice.

C. S. Lewis

On The Table wk 1.044.jpeg

Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse. You can shut him up for a fool, you can spit at him, and kill him as a demon or you can fall at his feet and call him Lord and God, but let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about his being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to.

C. S. Lewis

“Lord Jesus, I need You right now. I have fallen short of Your way and cannot climb my way to You on my own. Forgive me of my sins and I place my life in Your hands. I believe in You, Jesus and I surrender my life to You right now. Amen”
