Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

The Work of (God's) Joy...

As a child of God, I confess my ongoing need for a Savior and my need to hold fast to His Word. With great energy, I commit to growing in my relationship with Him and allowing Him to defeat the sin in my life. I will not grumble or complain, and I pray my life will shine like stars in the darkness of our world. My lasting joy is found in the good pleasure of my God.
