13 Then Moses said to God, "If I come to the people of Israel and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?"

14 God said to Moses, "I am who I am." And he said, "Say this to the people of Israel: 'I am has sent me to you.'" 15 God also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel: 'The Lord, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations.

Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me. I, I am the LORD, and besides me there is no savior... you are my witnesses, declares the LORD, I am God. I am He; there is none who can deliver from my hand; I work, and who can turn it back?" Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel... I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

“Thus, says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out. As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered... And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them... I will feed them with good pasture... There they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on rich pasture they shall feed... I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep.”
