Luke 10:25-37
(p. 869)

2. Slide03

And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?”

3. Slide04

And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.”

4. Slide05

And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.” But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied,

5. Slide06

“A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

6. Slide07

7. Slide08

But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine.

8. Slide09

Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying,

9. Slide10

‘Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?" He said,

"The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said to him,
"You go, and do likewise."

-Luke 10:25-37 ESV

11. Slide12

You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.
You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk
by the way, and when you lie down,

12. Slide14

and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

-Deuteronomy 6:5-9 ESV

13. Slide15

And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. “Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?” And he said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

14. Slide17

15. Slide18

On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.”

-Matthew 22:35-40 ESV

16. Slide19

Loving others is the outward expression of the inward reality of loving God. It shows that you understand what the greatest commandment really is.

17. Slide21

PRIDE - is the contaminated and corrupted passion to be happy. It is corrupted by two things

- (1) the unwillingness to see God as the only fountain of true and lasting joy, and
- (2) the unwillingness to see other people as designed by God to share our joy of him.

-John Piper

Because when you truly accept that those children in some far-off place in the global village have the same value as you in God's eyes... then your life is forever changed.

You see something that you can't unsee.

This parable of the Good Samaritan has built the world's hospitals,
and if understood and practiced,
will remove race prejudice, national hatred and war, and class jealousy.
