

Pray First, Day 16 - The Exaltation God

Psalms 57:5 NKJV

Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; Let Your glory be above all the earth.

When we stop in the middle of our days and take time to exalt God our perspective shifts. We stop looking down or around and we begin to look upward, heavenward. When we exalt God in worship and praise our problems and obstacles begin to shrink. As He grows larger everything else grows smaller.

Over the last few weeks we have been praying for God to be first in our lives. We have prayed for the lost and we have been praying for God to empower and use us.

As God has responded to your prayers, take time to praise Him and bless Him. Exalt Him because He is moving in your life. Exalt Him for the great and precious promises that He has declared over you. Exalt Him because He is worthy.

Prayer example:

"Father You and You alone are worthy. You deserve all the glory and honor and praise. Today I magnify You. I exalt You above all of my failures and above all of my successes. I magnify You above all of my problems and all of my opportunities. May Your name be lifted up. May Your will be done that You may receive all the glory forever and ever. Amen."
