

Pray First, Day 14 - The Day of Salvation

2 Peter 3:9 NKJV

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

We can never mistake the patience of God as some kind of tacit approval of the state of the world. God is patient because He is kind. God desires that men and women hear the gospel and repent of their sins so that they might be saved.

Let us continue to pray for these people. Let us continue to pray for the lost to be saved and that they experience the promise of salvation given through Jesus.

Prayer example:

"Heavenly Father thank You for Your patience and kindness towards fallen humanity. I pray for those in our community who do not know You yet. I pray that the good news of the gospel would go forth this year and that many would be saved. Raise up those who would speak Your word and give me the courage to join them. I pray this in the mighty name of Jesus, amen!"
