

“Slave and Free”
Colossians 4:7-18, Part I

1. Our stories may all be _____, but in Christ, we're all _____.

2. Salvation is _____, but following Jesus is often _____.

“Then Jesus told his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.” (Matthew 16:24)

3. God's _____ makes us new, but it doesn't always remove the of past decisions.

4. None of us are or have runaway _____, but most of us have people we need to _____ with, and or _____ and “_____ as brothers”.

- Do I have a Philemon I need to reconcile with?

- Do I have an Onesimus I need to forgive and restore?

- What is Jesus calling me to?

Colossians 4:7-18, Part I

- 2. Salvation is free, but following Jesus is often costly.

3. God's forgiveness makes us new, but it doesn't always remove the consequences of past decisions.

- 4. None of us are or have runaway slaves, but most of us have people we need to reconcile with, and or forgive and “receive as brothers”.
