

“The Problem”
Romans 7:13-25

1. God’s law was and is a reflection of His _____ and of His _____ for us.
2. We’re all _____ and incapable of _____ righteousness through the law.
3. We all have a “_____”, which is shaped by our attempts to find _____ without _____.
4. In Christ, we are made new _____ and given new _____ and _____ in Him.
5. Even as new creations in Christ, our _____, though put to death, still wants to _____.
6. Apart from the _____ of the Holy Spirit, our desires to do good, always end in _____ and _____.
7. Christ has set us free from our bondage to sin and death, and _____, we can experience _____ from its grip.

“The Problem”
Romans 7:13-25

1. God’s law was and is a reflection of His holiness and of His will for us.
2. We’re all sinful and incapable of achieving righteousness through the law.
3. We all have a “flesh”, which is shaped by our attempts to find life without Christ.
4. In Christ, we are made new creations and given new life and identity in Him.
5. Even as new creations in Christ, our flesh, though put to death, still wants to run us.
6. Apart from the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, our desires to do good, always end in failure and frustration.
7. Christ has set us free from our bondage to sin and death, and in Him, we can experience freedom from its grip.