In 1707, Isaac Watts, the father of modern Christian hymnody wrote: When I survey the wondrous cross on which the Prince of Glory died; my richest gain I count but loss and pour contempt on all my pride.

Surveying the wondrous cross of Jesus Christ is something we should often do. The cross is a constant reminder of the boundless love that God has for us. It is a love like no other (Jn. 15:13).

In our text, Jesus Christ suffered and died on a cross to save us from our sin.
