

“What Must I Do?”

Ryan Christmas

Acts 16:11-34

May 29, 2022

Welcome to Family Worship Sunday! A few times a year, we all gather in one service to sing and study God’s Word together. It is always a special day!

Throughout history, people have been asking the question, “What must I do to be saved?” You may have heard it asked in other ways, such as, “What must I do to inherit eternal life?” or “What must I do to enter the kingdom of God?”

In today’s text, we see a Roman jailer asking this very question in a powerful moment with Paul and Silas.

Main Thought...

- ➔ There is joy, peace, power, hope, forgiveness and salvation in the name of Jesus.
- 1. The Father _____ us where we _____. (11-18, 27-28)
- 2. The Father has _____ in our _____. (19-26)
- 3. The Father _____ us only through the _____ of Jesus Christ. (29-32)
- 4. The Father produces _____ in the lives of those who _____ in Him. (33-34)

Final Thoughts...

- ➔ Is the _____ of your _____ based solely in the work of Jesus?
- ➔ Are you _____ the Father with the _____ of your life?
- ➔ Who in your _____ needs to hear about the _____ of Jesus?
