Mary's Little Lamb

Dr. Bill Wilks

Revelation 7:9-17

December 11, 2022

"Mary Had a Little Lamb" is more than a children's nursery rhyme. When it comes to the Christmas story, Mary really did have a little lamb. Born in Bethlehem's manger was the Lamb of God.

From the Jewish Passover to Isaiah's prophesy, God foretold of Mary's little Lamb. Isaiah plainly said that Mary's baby—the Messiah—would be "like a lamb that is led to the slaughter" (Isa. 53:7b).

In our text, the Apostle John saw a vision of a great multitude from every nation giving worship to the Lamb of God.

Main Thought...

→ Mary had a little _____ who came to make us white as snow.

1. There is great _____ in the presence of the Lamb (v. 9-12).

- A great _____ will stand before Him (v. 9).
- A great _____ will be shared about Him (v. 10-12).

Jn. 14:6; Acts 4:12

2. There is great _____ in the precious blood of the Lamb (v. 13-14).

Jn. 1:29b; Eph. 1:7

3. There is great _____ in the promise of the Lamb (v. 15-17).

Rev. 21:4; 22:14, 17

Final Thoughts...

→ Will you be in that _____ multitude standing before Him?

→ Why not come to Him now for His free _____ of salvation?
