Have you ever searched for something but realized you were looking in the wrong place? You can spend your whole life searching for something you will never find until you look in the right place.

This is the story of Ecclesiastes. For many years, Solomon was looking for meaning in all the wrong places. He kept searching for meaning in life under the sun, and it was like chasing after the wind. True meaning in life can only be found by looking above the sun to our Creator.

In our text, King Solomon finally found what he was searching for by looking above the sun to our great Creator.

Main Thought...

→ To find meaning in life you must remember your _____.

1. _____ after Him when you are young (v. 1-8).

- Live your life with great _____ (v. 1a).
- Live your life with no _____ (v. 1b-8).

Ps. 139:13-14; Jer. 1:4-8; 1 Tim. 4:12; Ecc. 2:24-26

2. _____ to follow Him your whole life (v. 9-13).

Deut. 6:4-9; Jn. 14:15; 2 Tim. 4:6b-7

3. _____ to meet Him when you die (v. 14).

2 Cor. 5:10a; Heb. 9:27; John 3:16, 18

Final Thoughts...

→ Are you _____ about your relationship with Jesus?

→ Are you _____ you're ready to meet Him when you die?
