We live in the “land of the free” but many people live in complete bondage. We might be free to own property, choose our professions, and pursue happiness, but without Christ we are enslaved to sin. Only in Christ can we be “justified by faith,” and have “peace with God” (Romans 5:1).

In Romans Chapters 6 through 8, God shows us not only how to gain true freedom but also how to live in that freedom.

Key Truth: Experiencing freedom in Christ is both an immediate _____ and a life-long _____.

Freedom From:

- _____ control (Romans 6:7).
- _____ penalty (Romans 6:22-23).
- _____/condemnation (Romans 8:1)

Freedom to:

- _____ by the Spirit (8:3-4)
- _____ _____ on the Spirit (8:5).
- _____ life and peace (8:6).
- _____ to God’s law (8:7).
- _____ God (8:7-8)
- _____ true life (8:9-11)
- _____ _____ the deeds of the body (8:13).
- _____ _____ by the Spirit of God (8:14).
- Be _____ as God’s child (8:15-17).

Freedom is not found in trying harder. It is found in _____ Christ and walking daily with the Holy Spirit who indwells every believer.
